the BEST BULLFIGHTER

"My papa is a much better boolfighter than your papa," Little Pancho Vanilla argued with his friend Jose.

"That ees not so," retaliated Jose. "My papa is the best boolfighter in all of Chilivania... maybe the world."

"Ha!" exclaimed Pancho. "My papacito can beat yours... with hees eyes closed."

"The only way to settle thees ees to ask our papas to have a contest," said Jose.

"You are right," agreed Pancho. "We will ask your papa first."

When the two friends approached Jose's father, he was more than willing to have a contest with Señor Vanilla.

"Certainly," he agreed. "I go to the arena now to practice with Chili Pepper, the most ferocious bool in Chilivania."

Pancho and Jose hurried to the Vanilla hacienda to see if Pancho's father would also agree to the contest. They found Señor Vanilla on the front porch, just preparing to take his afternoon siesta.

"Papacito, who ees the best boolfighter in all the land?" asked Pancho.

"Why, I am," Papacito promptly replied.

"But Jose says hees papa ees the best," Pancho explained, "and I said you can beat hees papa with your eyes closed. We want you two to have a contest to prove who ees the greatest matador ever."

"You will be fighting Chili Pepper," added Jose with a sly little smile.

"CHILI PEPPER!" cried Papacito. "He ees the most ferocious bool in Chilivania!"

"He ees a mean one," agreed Jose, "but my papa ees not afraid of heem."

Señor Vanilla swallowed hard, as he tried to find an excuse to bow out of the contest without offending Pancho.

"Er, I-I cannot lower myself to fight such a gentle bool as Chili Pepper," he shrugged. "Everyone knows how great I am. I do not need to prove eet again!"

"If beeg talk makes a good boolfighter, then your papa ees the best ever," Jose chuckled, as he and Pancho walked away, leaving Señor Vanilla to his siesta.

"But he ees a good boolfighter when he wants to be," retorted Pancho.

And, as Señor Vanilla drifted into sleep, he began dreaming that he was fighting Chili Pepper. He fought bravely, and the crowded arena rang with shouts, acclaiming him a champion.

Meanwhile, Pancho and Jose were returning to tell Jose's father that the contest would have to be called off. As they turned the bend in the road, they saw Jose's father running toward them, with Chili Pepper and a crowd of people close behind him.

"Run for cover!" shouted Jose's father. "Chili Pepper ees loose. I can't stop heem."

The shrieking crowd roused Señor Vanilla only halfway from his sleep, and he mistook them for the cheering people in his dream. Very quickly, he pulled his serape from his shoulders and began acting out the dream that he was dreaming. He made first one and then another magnificent pass at the angry bull. Everyone watched in amazement.

"Bravo! Magnifico!" the crowd roared.

After many charges, Chili Pepper became too tired to charge again. He was almost too tired to follow Jose's father back to the practice arena. And, the exercise was so wearing on Señor Vanilla that he fell into a deeper, more satisfying sleep.

"You win," Jose said to Pancho. "Your papa not only won with hees eyes closed, he won while he was sound asleep. That is real talent... my papa ees not that good!"
